

SUPPORT GROUPS SCHEDULE

Providing community- and office-based services to children, adults, and families affected by sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, and other trauma such as family violence and physical abuse.

Referral deadlines for ALL 2022 GROUPS are 2 weeks prior to group start date. To learn more about our clinical support groups, or to make a referral, please contact our Outpatient Department's Intake Coordinator at (401) 353-3900 ext. 416.

Families Impacted by Sexual Abuse Group: This group is designed to provide peer support and education to non-offending parents and caretakers of children and teens that have been sexually abused. (FISA, 4 group sessions per year)

- FISA Morning Spring Session, Friday mornings: February 3 – May 5, 2022
- FISA Morning Fall Session, Monday mornings: September 9 – December 9, 2022
- FISA Evening Spring Session, Monday evenings: February 7 – May 23, 2022
- FISA Evening Fall Session, Wednesday evenings: September 7 – December 7, 2022

Our Families Hope for Healing Group: Session occurs once per month on the 1st Friday of every month, 5:30-7:00 pm. For caretakers that have completed our FISA Curriculum, this group is designed to provide clinically guided support, as well as peer support, to parents and caretakers of families impacted by sexual abuse.

Teen Prevention Group: This six-week group is designed to empower female-identifying youth, ages 12-18, to protect themselves from the commercial sex industry and to explore what makes a healthy relationship. The group aims to improve self-esteem and fosters a supportive environment among peers. The group teaches youth that those who have been exploited are survivors, not criminals. (3 group sessions per year)

- Winter/Spring Session: February 14 – March 21, 2022
- Summer Session: May 2 – June 13, 2022
- Fall Session: October 3 – November 14, 2022

Hope for Healing, Children and Teen: These ten week groups focus on helping survivors to increase their basic knowledge about the impacts of sexual abuse and sexual trauma.
